

Sanjeep Neupane

Sanjeep Neupane is a 23 years youth activist from Kavre district of Nepal. He is a secretary of national level youth network facilitated by tdh Germany in Nepal called Nepal youth network for sustainable development. Representing the network, he was elected as a youth prime minister of youth parliament formed by National Youth Council, Ministry of Youth, Nepal. He is a campaigner of environmental justice, eco-friendly local governance, and sustainable development model. He is actively working in raising awareness to local planning process in communities to promote alternative models of development. He strongly believes that alternative development model can be achieved by the youth empowerment and mobilization.